TIPS FOR TRAVEL BY PUBLIC TRANSPORT

- Check timetable prior to leaving home either by calling the appropriate Transport company or checking with the Transport information line
Phone: 131500 or on the internet www.131500.info
- Plan return journey before leaving
- If you have a wheelchair or mobility aid and want to catch a bus, phone the bus company before you leave to see if they have a wheelchair accessible bus at the time you need to travel.
- If you are catching a train it is a good idea to phone the station you are leaving from prior to leaving to advise them that you will need some assistance as some stations are not manned.
- If you are purchasing a Pensioner Excursion Ticket (PET) have your pensioner card with you
